

KAMIENSKI

imaginary audiences say: "wow, I love it."

Hi, I'm Alex. I also go by KAMIENSKI.

I am a queer, neurodivergent creative focusing on art/movement directing across multiple disciplines and I am based in London, UK.

Absorbed in high art and pop culture, I blend the extraordinary and the surreal. Physical and emotional experiences are used as a muse.

Simple becomes deliciously complicated.

Working with people and collaboration is vital to my practice. Great teamwork elevates craft; projects become immersive and absorbing.

I work with those who need ideas, support and climax for their projects. I'm not afraid of a challenge or uncharted waters; I swim my best when against the current.

My inspirations are eclectic, often redefined.
I love what I do, and I'd love to do it with you.

Here you will find some examples of my work.

Let's dream on.
